1. The number of covered twin-engine planes with double rudder assemblies which were previously seen at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield was increased to about 60 on 10 July 1950. * A German employee at the field said that a second unit had arrived from Dresden (N 52/F 29). Seven biplanes were also parked at the field. According to statements by local residents, no flights have been made recently.
